5. If an application is found to fall within the range determined to be conditional, an applicant may be counteroffered arrangements including a higher security deposit, the addition of a qualified co-signer, or an alternative unit which fits the rent to income ration criteria.

Applicant Screening Criteria

Screening criteria will be applied consistently to all applicants. Consideration of extenuating circumstances will be considered in the screening process, but must be approved by a Regional Manager.

All applications will be reviewed to make sure the applicants meet Blue Canyon's criteria for each of the following:

1. Income/Debt;
2. Credit history;
3. Criminal history; and
4. No other automatic disqualifiers.

Income/Debt

1. For conventional properties, Blue Canyon will evaluate the application based on the combined net household income (take home pay) of the applicants.
 - a. For low Income Housing Tax Credit properties, Blue Canyon will evaluate the application based on the combined gross household income of the applicants and in accordance with Federal, State and Local income guidelines.
2. An applicant's net income must be at least three (3) times the rental amount on the requested unit. This is called the rent to income ratio and is calculated by dividing the income by the rent. For example, if a person is applying for a conventional apartment renting for $500.00 and makes $1,600.00 take home pay, the rent to income ratio is $$1,600.00/$500.00 = 3.2$.
 - a. For Low Income Housing Tax Credit properties, the rent to income ratio is determined based using gross household income.
3. If an applicant has a rent to income ratio of 2.5 -2.99, the applicant will be considered conditional and must complete a landlord verification.
4. An applicant with less than a 2.5 rent to income ratio will be denied unless the applicant has a housing voucher or other stable and documentable rental assistance that covers the duration of the lease. These instances must be approved by a Regional Manager.

Credit History

Priority will be given to current credit activity over older credit activity. All rental obligations and utilities must be paid in full. Medical bills and student loans will not be considered when examining credit history. Lack of credit history is not an automatic disqualification.

However, applicants have a right to request a reasonable accommodation.

If an applicant does not meet one or more of the above criteria, they may still be eligible for a rental unit if they can get a third-party to guarantee the lease. "Co-signers or "Guarantors" must be related to at least one of the applicants. It is preferable that co-signers reside in the same state as the applicants. The co-signer must submit a written application along with the application fee and must pass the criteria of the screening process as any other applicant. The income to rent ratio must be six (6) times the rent. If the co-signer cannot come to Blue Canyon's office in person, the signed application must be notarized. All co-signers must be approved by a member of management. A co-signer will be a leaseholder and will be required to sign a lease agreement and uphold all obligations outlined in the lease. If the co-signer cannot come to Blue Canyon's office in person, the signed lease must be notarized.
